Garena Free Fire is one of the most successful battleground games for PUBG and Fortnite. Millions of users have chosen the game and many of them search and help to simplify their games. Improving weapon transport and sensitivity is one of the most difficult aspects of many shooting games while trying to properly shoot and move your character. In fact, trying to beat the competition requires us to be constantly on the move. Apps like Rook FF Auto Headshot are also starting to work. With this app, free-fire players increase their weapon's vulnerability and shoot too many auto headshots or auto-aim the same number of enemy heads. This allows us to adjust the sensitivity of the entire game and do it for specific elements such as specific weapons. All you have to do is launch the program and create the settings for the menu you want and then apply them to the free fire market. Requirements and additional information: Minimum operating system requirements: Android 5.0. To download an app via APK, you need to enable the "Unknown Resources" option in Settings > Apps.
