Sword art online integral factor weapon guide

Sword (1H): Balance between the damage, attack speed and the mobility. Sword Art Online: Integral Factor (SAOIF) is a new MMORPG open world for Android and IOS device. Since it is a Massively Multiplayer Online Role-Playing Game (MMORPG), you can meet and interact with other players. There are 7 kinds of weapon. Those kind of item usually will not appear for the second time. The last tips for SAO IF Beginner guide is to join forum. If you are free to play (F2P) player and wish for a long survivability in this game, you have to use those arcana gems wisely and aim for the best skill records. We know that the main quest will give you high EXP to level up, but finishing main quests only will not be enough. This requires lots of materials, of course, so always keep an eye on what the Blacksmith currently needs and which enemies drop those resources. The third tips about SAO IF beginner guide is about enhancing. Partner Content by BANDAI NAMCO Entertainment Inc. For example: if you decide to take a sword as your main weapon, you can only equip sword skill record as your ability. For optimal results, make sure each weapon has a differing elemental affinity, as enemies will often have elemental weaknesses and resistances on later floors. As a beginner in this game, there are several things you need to know so you will not left behind from other players. If you are lucky, you can meet some pro players and ask them some information related to this game. Arrow (2H): High damage, high attack speed, low mobility. Weapons have four slots for Attack Skills (quick, high-damage abilities that have cooldowns) while armors have four slots for Buffs (passive, always-on bonuses). Here are the weapons that you can choose: (If you equip one handed weapon, you can also equip a shield in another hand). We strongly recommend you to choose maximum two kinds of weapon. You also have to take some Sub Quest while finishing your main quests. The rewards can be in the form of Col (In-game currency), Arcana gems, or materials. You can enhance your equipment and skill records by talking to the blacksmith. You can find NPC (Non Playable Character) with sub-quest by accessing your Map. Life will be much easier when you can just swap out weapons to fully take advantage of (or negate) their traits. Don't Forget Your Partner For optimal results you should focus not only on your character, but also pay attention to Koharu, your AI partner, and her gear and Sword Skill. Dagger (1H): Low damage, high attack speed, high mobility. Other than that, you should keep your equipment in current state because in the higher level you can craft some equipment with better base stats and you have spent all your enhancing materials for the previous equipment. You have to complete the main quest in order to go further in this game. Those are 9 tips of SAO IF beginner guide that will help you in the beginning of the game. This SAOIF is published by BANDAI NAMCO Entertainment Inc and on March 2018 was released for Global. You should participate in those events as many as you can, because there are some limited time rewards that you can get as rewards in the events. So in order to choose the best weapon, you should consider these two options: You decide what kind of weapon first (The most suitable weapon with your game play style) then you do the reroll until you get at least one 4-stars skill record of your weapon type. You can enhance your equipment and your skill records using some stone materials (for equipment), or record frame materials (for skill records). So by taking then finishing the main quest and the sub-quest at the same time will save your time in leveling your character. You can only obtain this arcana gems by finishing quests, get achievements, or top up. These skill records will be very helpful to increase your survivability in this game and to cope up with other advanced players. As more and more floors of Aincrad unlock, you'll need all the power you can muster. But there is an easy and fast guide to do this reroll. Spear (2H): High damage (AOE skill), high attack speed, low mobility. It behooves you to fill these as soon as you find relevant Sword Skills along your adventure. Axe (2H): High damage (AOE Skill), low attack speed, low mobility. Hit these early and often until you're appropriately swole. Skills, Skills, Skills Beyond leveling up your character, Sword Art Online: Integral Factor also lets you equip Sword Skills to customize your hero's abilities. Every day you will be given some different missions with different rewards. Find and join some forums related to this Sword Art Online: Integral Factor. More than just making you feel real fancy, doing so also lets you take advantage of multiple Sword Skill sets during a single battle. Some skill records can only be equipped when you also equip a certain weapon. Go to that mark, and talk to the NPC. If you don't get any 4-stars skill record, you have to repeat the gacha by doing some rerolls until you get at least one 4-stars skill record. All quests have suggested levels so you can start with the lower-ranked ones first, but if you're impatient, you can also try tackling some of the higher-ranked quests with the help of another player. Once you max out a Sword Skill, you can then "transform" it to make it even stronger and unlock another rarity star. Hope this SAO IF beginner guide will be very useful for you. This Arcana gems can be used for buying costume/avatar and gacha skill records. Make sure you check the announcement as often as possible, so you will not miss the events. Some monsters are weak against certain weapon, so try to equip 2 different kinds of weapon. Mace (1H): High damage (AOE Skill), low attack speed, low mobility. And don't overlook the passives! As many long-time adventurers will attest, these can be some of the most useful upgrades in the game. Prepare a Backup Weapon Notice that orange button on the UI? You will be able to find some advance thing about this game after you play this game for several days. You do the Gacha and the reroll until you get at least one 4-stars skill, then your main weapon selection will adapt the skill records that you obtain. Try to finish all the daily missions and collect the rewards. Other than that, you can also find some gacha events that offer discount, rare costume, or rare skill records with higher probability. Off to a Good Start! Hey, why are you still here? The next SAO IF beginner guide is about sub-quest. This leveling up will consume a lot of time. Don't hesitate to ask some questions in that forum and say that you are a newbie player. As a new player, you are allowed to do a very cheap Gacha to get some skill records to help you in your battle. So here is SAO IF beginner guide that will help you in this game. Some offensive Sword Skills can only be equipped onto certain of the six weapon types, so if you have several for Axe but just one for Spear and Sword, you might want to favor Axes in the early going. As it is a gacha, there are some random probabilities to get a powerful skill record. You can see how to do reroll easily here. Make sure you also choose the best weapons and skill records for your partner because she will be very helpful in completing missions. Rapier (1H): Low damage, high attack speed, high mobility. This gacha is limited once per account. There will be an exclamation mark in the map. The most important thing in the MMORPG games is to level up your character as fast as possible. From that forum, you can get some information about events, tips and trick, and guidance related to this game. There are correlations between your weapon and the skill records that you obtain. It will be much easier and faster to finish the missions when you are in a party. You can equip maximum 2 kinds of weapon with you. It's worth pointing out that some quests are also repeatable, most notably the monster-hunting subquests you'll find on each floor. Once you get Koharu fully equipped with an array of Sword Skills, she'll become a great asset in battle. You can access the daily mission from the menu - Quest - Accepted Quests. So now that you've downloaded Sword Art Online: Integral Factor and created a cool character, you need to properly prepare yourself for adventure in the massive world of Aincrad! You can learn more about this game from our last article, otherwise read on to learn some useful tips to start off your journey on the right foot. Grind Selectively When in doubt, level up. As the story goes on, the main quest will be updated. This button lets you swap between two active weapon loadouts. The most valuable currency in this game is arcana gems. You've got quests to complete, floors to conquer, and a bunch of weapons, armor, and Sword Skills to enhance, so get in there and build the strongest hero you can. Remember you can download the game through your app store of choice once you're ready to dive right in and check us out on Facebook. While it's fine to just give her hand-me-down gears at first, it's smarter to make her kit complement your hero's loadout as your inventory grows. For equipment, you should enhance your equipment only when you have some trouble finishing the quests. Sword Art Online: Integral Factor is loaded with opportunities to gain level-boosting EXP to help build your character up to par for the current floor in no time flat. For Skill records, enhance only at least 3-stars skill records and focus to maximize those skill records to the max level. In this Sword Art Online: Integral Factor you can choose your own weapon. There are some in-game events that given periodically. Both require enhancement materials, and you can visit a Blacksmith to see which materials are needed to upgrade which gear or skill. Choose your weapon carefully because later you have to focus on increasing the weapon proficiency. Since you can only do this gacha once, you have to get at least one powerful skill record. Some sub-quests have the same goals with the main quest. You can access the event notifications from menu - setting - Notifications. Since this game is an open world MMORPG, you have to increase your level in order to cope up with the enemies or monster. This rerolling thing will be very frustrated, because usually you have to do 4 or 5 times reroll in order to get at least one 4-stars skill record. We suggest you to join or form a party when you try to accomplish a mission. Leveling up and finding good rewards is one thing, but you'll really take your character to the next level once you start upgrading your gear and Sword Skills. You can also equip weapon to your partner (Koharu). What you have to keep in mind is, don't waste your enhancing materials for some equipment or skill records with a low-star base. Besides, some sub-quest sometime offer you with better rewards.

A helmet-mounted display (HMD) is a device used in aircraft to project information to the pilot's eyes. Its scope is similar to that of head-up displays (HUD) on an aircrew's visor or reticle. An HMD provides the pilot with situation awareness, an enhanced image of the scene, and in military applications cue weapons systems, to the direction their head is pointing.
