In light of these events, we've created another list detailing some of the best and most talked about 2021 movies. Looking back, 2019 really capped off 10 years of cinema value with a bang. The years-long Mega-blockbuster sagas came closer, thanks to Avengers: Endgame and Star Wars: Episode IX: The Skywalker Rise. Meanwhile, some of the best movies of the decade, like Parasite, and the worst a sorry Catsâ made indelible marks on our collective consciousness of pop culture. With some hits like Aves de Prey already in theaters, it's time to look forward. Not only are these upcoming photos exciting, they are also throwing backin the movies. Here are the essential films of 2020. A Quiet Place Part II (Paramount Pictures) TBDIIf you had told us five years ago that John Krasinski, alias Jim de The Office, would write, direct and co-protagonize one of the best horror films of the decade, we would not have believed you. However, the filmmaker completely changed our expectations with A Quiet Place 2018, starring Krasinski, alias Jim de The Office, would write, direct and co-protagonize one of the best horror films of the decade, we would not have believed you. world invaded by monsters who use the sound to find their victims. Photo courtesy of Arturo Holmes/WireImage/Getty Images The warning of this post-apocalyptic world, of course, was that everyone had to remain absolutely quiet at all times, except whispering in a soundless basement. The detail became more than a trick: it added an incredible amount of emotions and tension to the story. This year, the sequel is back with more sequences of dialogue and action than the first film. Blunt will resume his role, along with new castmates Djimon Hounsou and Cillian Murphy. The original premiere date was March 20th, but now the premiere date is pending. If you saw Star Wars: The Rise of Skywalker at IMAX, you were probably invited to an extended preview of Tenet, in addition to the usual 25 minutes of preview of movies. At that time, we were a bit upset by the prologue of the film, but after seeing the trailer, there is certainly some promise to Tenet, which is the latest offer of Inception Director Christopher Nolan. Photo courtesy of Budrul Chukrut/SOPA Images/LightRocket via Getty Images Filmed for release at IMAX, 35mm and 70mm, Tenet pretends to be a feast for the eyes, as well as Dunkerque, which induces anxiety. The film is starred by John David Washington (BlacKkKlansman) nominated to the Golden Globe as a secret agent to preventWorld War III through time travel. (Sounds like a standard Nolan, mind-blowing premise for us!) Washington joins a distinguished, Robert Pattinson, Elizabeth Debicki, Clà ® Mence Poy Sy, Himesh Patel, Kenneth Branagh, Michael Caine and others. Black Widow (Marvel Entertainment/Disney) | May 1 for quite some time, Natasha Romanoff, a.k.A.A. Black Widow (Scarlett Johansson), was the only woman in the Avengers squad, and she is more than deserving of an independent movie. Finally, Marvel (and Disney) is ready to give Brillo the ex-KGB-Agent-Assassin-Teched-Avenger to shine on his own, without playing the second violin. Black Widow is a prequel movie, which takes place between Captain America of 2016: the Civil War and the Avengers of 2018: the Infinite War. Photo courtesy: Black Widow / IMDB in the Civil War, Captain America and the Man of Iron find themselves divided over the issue of superheroes who need government supervision, which ends in a blow-out fight. At first, Romanoff sides with the Iron Man, but, in the end, she helps escape to CAP and then enters into exile. In the movie, Romanoff will join people from his past, including fellow Black widowed agents (played by Florence Pong and Russian super soldier Red Guardian (David Harbor). Antebellum (Lionsgate) | The April 24 recognition for her Grammy-nominated body of music, Janelle Monárez is a multi-faceted guide that excels in every art form. From singing, composing and burning paths as an activist, MonÁ; rea is an icon of BonaFide. The Many Saints of Newark (HBO) September 25When the end of the game-changing HBO series The Soprano reached the middle of the scene, the audience had all kinds of reactions. Some viewers thought the ending was bright, "a nod to the fact that life goes on, beyond the frame of the story", while others were annoyed by the lack of "resolution." Although HBO isn't going to continue the story of the Soprano family beyond that final take, the network is giving fans a prequel. Photo courtesy: Jose Perez/Bauer-Griffin/GC Images/Getty Images Newark's many saints take a page from The Godfather: Part II playbook and follow a younger Tony Soprano, played by the late James Gandolfini's son, Michael Gandolfini (HBOas The Deuce)). Leslie Odom Jr. (Hamilton), Jon Bernthal (The Walking Dead), Ray Liotta (Goodfellas) and Vera Farmiga (Up in the Air) are just a few of the many talents that will give shape to young Tony. Fans can also rest easy knowing that series creator David Chase is ready to produce the crime drama. No Time to Die (Universal Pictures) E 10 AprilThis upcoming spy film is the 25th installment of the James Bond film saga and features Daniel Craig on his fifth and final release as MI6's starring agent. The film is directed by director Cary Joji Fukunaga, whose extensive work includes the adaptation of Jane Eyre in 2011, the acclaimed drama Beasts of No Nation in 2015 and the first season of HBO's True Detective, which earned him an Emmy for Outstanding Direction. Photo courtesy: MLADEN ANTONOV/AFP via Getty Images Behind the scenes, Phoebe Waller-Bridge of Fleabagâ cowrote the script. In front of the camera, greats like Ralph Fiennes, Naomie Harris, Ben Whishaw, Jeffrey Wright, Rory Kinnear, Léa Seydoux and Christoph Waltz return to their roles. In the film, Bond, formerly known as Agent 007, comes out of his for a final departure against the adversary Safin (winner of the Rami Malek Academy Award), which Savior of humanity. This time, Bond is joined by another agent, Nomi, played by captain Marvela Loshana Lynch. Promising Young Woman marks the debut as director of the Emerald Fennell writer, more known as the Emmy of Killing Eve of the BBC. The film is starring Carey Mulligan (An Education, The Great Gatsby), winner of the BAFTA, like Cassie, whom she considers a promising young woman until an unbelieved event will dear the future of her. Photo courtesy: Focus Features / IMDb When the film starts with Cassie, she is perversely cunning, even carrying a double life, but a casual meeting gives him the opportunity to amend the past. The co-stars of Mulligan are numerous and include Bo Burnham, Alison Brie, Clancy Brown, Laverne Cox, Connie Britton and Jennifer Coolidge. After his debut at Sundance, the film obtained a 97% qualification in Rotten Tomatoes, with the aggregate summary of the site that reports that the film is â € œThe auspically provocative and timely thriller "... an auspicious debut of feature films ... and a culminating point of Mulligan's career. Night in Soho (Focus Characteristics) | The September, Edgar Wright, is known for his emotions and rapid rhythm comedies, And his record is pretty amazing. Along with Simon Pegg, he wrote (and directed) the three entries in the three cornetto cornetto cornetto cornetto flavorsâ € "Shaun of the Dead (2004), Hot Fuzz (2007) and The Worldâ € ™ s End (2013). It also adapted the graphic novel Scott Pilgrim V. The World (2010) in a very dear movie. Competition of photos: Focus / IMDB features Recently, Wright Co-wrote the guiion for the surprise of Marvel Ant-Man (2015), and he used hearings with Baby Driver in 2017. The last night in Soho brand Something new: Wright tries to nail the psychological terror gall. It is not known too much about the movie, but the history of him tested in combination with the stars of the film â thomasin mckenzie, Anya Taylor-Joy, Matt Smith, Diana Rigg and Terence Stampâ do so one to keep his eye on. I'm thinking of killing things (netflix) silence to meet his parents, who live on a remote farm. Before the trip, the bride unnamed is thinking about finishing things å and she regrets not to do it when the trip takes a frightening turn. Courtesy of photos: I'm thinking about including things / IMDB called the å € cemore and original literary thriller to appear somewhatâ € for the Chicago Tribune, I'm thinking about ending Things looks like Rife for adaptation for the right mind. Luckily for the public, Charlie Kaufman, known for writing increases movies such as Adaptation (2002), Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind (2004) and Synecdoche, New York (2008), is prepared to write and direct the cinematographic version of Reid's novel. The film is also protagonist of heavy obstacles, including Jesse Plemons, Jessie Buckley (HBOâ € The Spotless Mind (2004) and Synecdoche, New York (2008), is prepared to write and direct the cinematographic version of Reid's novel. Chernobyl) and Toni Collette (HEREDITARY, KNIVES OUT). The Invisible Man (Productions Blumhouse) Silence February 28 If there is one thing that the cinematographic world needs, is another universal universal When he released the universally supplied mummary, starring Tom Cruise, which was meant to launch a cinematographic universe consisting of classical monsters. Photo courtesy: Productions of Blumhouse / Universal images / IMDB at the RAÃZ FLOP, universal spinning, associating with BLUMHOUSE productions to count the stories of the Monster. Blumhouse, of course, now is the name "¢ in horror, with the Helming Blockbuster series, such as purge, the insidious and happy day of death. It is not necessary to say that it is intrigued by this modern reimagination of the HG Wells Classic, who stars at Elisabeth Moss as a brilliant scientist and survivor who lied with the so-called final of an abusive relationship.
